

Agreement on the continuation of online classes until the end of the academic year

2 April 2020

The Andalusian Regional Minister of Economy, Knowledge, Business and Universities, and the Rectors of all the public universities of Andalusia, in a meeting held April 1, 2020, agreed:

1. To continue classes online for the rest of the academic year 2019/2020.
2. To prepare a general contingency framework with all due speed so that each university can determine the best way to adapt traineeships that cannot be carried out online, evaluation mechanisms, teaching guidelines, the academic calendar and final undergraduate projects and master's degree theses.

The Regional Minister and the Rectors reconfirm their willingness to coordinate and their commitment to adopt the best possible solutions to guarantee the success of the 2019-2020 academic year.
